

CELEBRATING AT HOME

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Does God listen? (Luke 17:5-10)

CELEBRATING AT HOME

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord is here, present among us.

We are gathered with the whole Church
in this moment of prayer.

Preparing to hear the Word

Lord Jesus,

you teach us to be servants of God.

Lord Jesus,

you teach us to be servants of one another.

Lord Jesus,

you draw us into faithful union with you.

Scripture Reading (Luke 17:5-10)

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea" and it would obey you.

Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."

Reflection - Does God listen?

"Are you listening, God?" That's the cry of the prophet Habakkuk in the first reading for this Sunday.

Everyone can resonate with the Habakkuk's feelings of frustration and anger at the appalling injustice he witnesses. 'Why is God so slow to act?', he complains.

God's response to Habakkuk is a call to greater trust and faithfulness. God will answer, but not, perhaps, as quickly, or in the manner, Habakkuk would like.

The idea of faithfulness links the first reading with the today's Gospel and the apostles asking Jesus to increase their faith.

What disciples on the 'way of Jesus' need more than anything is a deepening faith in the God of Jesus Christ who can and will rescue them from opposition and other destructive forces.

Jesus says that even a small amount of faith can bring about quite unexpected and seemingly impossible things - like uprooting a mulberry tree and planting it in the sea!

Essential to the faithful following of Jesus is letting go of the ego needs for power, wealth and position and living a life of faith in God and faithful following of Jesus which is expressed in true ministry to others.

Faithful disciples work diligently as servants of the Kingdom, not for rewards and honours, but keenly aware of God free graciousness to them and the need to extend that graciousness to others.

Prayers of Intercession

God who speaks in silence,

help us to hear you in the light and in the darkness.

When the limitations of our hearts threaten reconciliation, hope and peace, grace us afresh with your Spirit.

God, you wait patiently for us to discover your life.

Give us the patience to wait for you.

Lord's Prayer

Formed by the teaching and example of Jesus,
we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth

as it is in heaven.

CELEBRATING AT HOME

27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Closing Prayer

God, you are always gracious to us.
May we respond to your love
and become a living source of generosity
and blessing for our world.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Blessing

May the blessing of God be among us,
and remain with us for ever.
Amen.

Journey into the Light

This resource is presented by the Carmelites of Australia & Timor-Leste at a time when many cannot gather together as we usually do to celebrate the Eucharist. We are conscious that Christ is present not only in the Blessed Sacrament but also in the Scriptures and in our hearts. Even when we are on our own we remain part of the Body of Christ.

In the room you decide to use for this prayer you could have a lighted candle, a crucifix and the Bible. These symbols help keep us mindful of the sacredness of our time of prayer and can help us feel connected with our local worshipping communities.

This text is arranged with parts for a leader and for all to pray, but the leader's parts can be shared among those present.

As you use this prayer know that the Carmelites will be remembering in our prayer all the members of our family at this time.
